

Ambow's Emerging Engineering Course Series Obtains Recommendation from Education-Focused App Xuexi Qiangguo

BEIJING, April 6, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Ambow Education Holding Ltd. ("Ambow" or "the Company") (NYSE American: AMBO), China's leading provider of educational and career enhancement services, today announced that two vocational courses related to its curated Emerging Engineering Series have been recommended as the premium courses on the education-focused app Xuexi Qiangguo.

The two courses are Java-based High-performance Development - Dubbo Distributed System ("Dubbo System") and an Introduction to WeChat Mini Program Development.

Xuexi Qiangguo is a prestigious education-focused app in China, which makes extensive, high-quality course offerings across a wide range of subjects and age groups easily accessible. Among the Chinese educational apps of iOS App Store, Xuexi Qiangguo ranks top four. Additionally, its downloads have reached 1.3 billion on Android devices, 13 times more than those of Xueersi Online School, reflecting its wide appeal.

In order to cater to job placement needs, Ambow's premium course Dubbo System, focuses on training the next generation of engineering talent, helping developers who lack systems training to develop technical cognition and application as well as integral thinking. Designed by Ambow's top tutor team, the Emerging Engineering Series of Courses ("Series") features courses focused on topics ranging from: Big Data, Artificial Intelligence, Industrial Internet, the Internet of Things, robots and integrated circuit industries. Series also introduces core professional skills for emerging engineering professionals to address various job requirements and also helps students and professionals who are looking to pursue new career paths. Since 2020, Ambow's premium series of courses has been frequently recommended by influential platforms including Xuexi Qiangguo, Huanqiu.com and Sina Education.

Dr. Jin Huang, President and Chief Executive Officer of Ambow, commented, "We have been committed to our goal of bringing 'Better School, Better Job, Better Life' to all of our users. Supported by the "Internet + Education" and innovative smart education models, we, along with our partners, strive to deliver superior online education resources, empowering talent training for a broad range of industries. Our Emerging Engineering Series of Courses, designed to nurture talent for innovation-focused industries, is part of our effort to provide high-quality educational products and services to a wider user base."
